Building backlinks to your pages is an essential part of Search Engine Optimization (SEO). Backlinks will not only help your pages get found by and indexed in the search engines faster, but they will also influence rankings, so your pages are ranked higher and your site receives more traffic. If like me you want your pages to rank higher in the search engines, then you should build backlinks to your pages almost every day. Link building should be an on-going process, and not just a one-off thing. That's one of the reasons why I decided to create my own link building service: SocialMonkee. With SocialMonkee YOU can build 25 new backlinks to your pages every day, and be part of a community that now counts over 100,000 members. SocialMonkee gives you access to the tools thousands of people have used to build backlinks to their site and boost their existing backlinks. Our system has proven to be an effective link building solution, and today I want to offer you the opportunity to join SocialMonkee and be able to build 25 Unique, DoFollow Backlinks to your pages every day, for a low one-time investment of $7. As a SocialMonkee Member you will be able to:
